TRAPPER CLARK – THOMAS STURTEVANT NAMED MAINE SMALL BUSINESS PERSONS OF THE YEAR BY THE U.S. SMALL BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

Augusta, Maine – SBA Maine District Director Maurice L. Dubé announced the 2010 Small Business Administration's Small Business Persons of the Year Award has been won by Trapper R. Clark and Thomas Sturtevant of ALCOM, Inc. of Winslow, Maine.

Under the management of company President, Mr. Clark and Corporate Vice President, Mr. Sturtevant, ALCOM Inc, which started as a small manufacturer of recreational aluminum trailers with 20 employees in 2006, has shown significant growth in both its sales and workforce. The company now employs 80 local workers and with the recent expansion and move to a new facility, that number will increase to 100 in the near future.

ALCOM Inc. has rapidly established itself as a nation-wide leader in the design and manufacture of recreational aluminum trailers and the Maine District of the U.S. Small Business Administration is proud to recognize their achievement with the 2010 SBA Small Business Persons of the Year Award.

Mr. Clark and Mr. Sturtevant will receive their awards at the SBA's Annual Awards Luncheon which is being hosted by the Maine Small Business Development Centers at Le Club Calumet on May 14th from 11:00 to 2:00 pm. This event is open to the public. For online reservations please visit https://www.mainesbdc.org/events/SBA\_Awards/register.cfm.
