OPPORTUNITY NORTH DAKOTA

FREE SMALL BUSINESS WORKSHOP

Under the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act (ARRA), changes and additions to federal programs have resulted in new financing and contracting opportunities for small business.

- New businesses have increased opportunities to secure financing
- Existing businesses have opportunities to plan for expansion
- Businesses stressed by economic conditions may be in a position to restructure debt and work with lenders to meet the current cash flow and future financial needs of their business
- Existing businesses have additional opportunities to expand their market through sales to the government

Register today to attend one of the workshops listed below to connect with resources that can assist you and to learn more about ARRA and how it can help your business and community.
