An important source of financing for entrepreneurs is the Small Business Administration (SBA) guaranteed loan program. The SBA provides short- and long-term guaranteed loans to eligible, credit-worthy start-ups and existing small businesses that cannot obtain financing on reasonable terms through normal lending channels. SBA provides a number of loan programs for most small business needs.

During this brief, you'll learn the steps you can take to help get the financing your small business needs.

- We'll explain the importance of a strong business plan
- How our resource partners – SCORE, the Nebraska Business Development Center and the Rural Enterprise Assistance Project -- can help you
- Find out why lenders use SBA guaranteed loans in their financing projects.

And, take advantage of the chance to get answers to your small business financing questions.
