

CONGRATULATIONS

Mr. Todd Adelman, Chief Executive Officer and Founder of Trade Wings, Inc of Portsmouth, NH, a global Reuse Optimization technology, consulting and outsourcing partner to the largest Telecom carriers and equipment manufacturers has been named New Hampshire's Small Business Person of the Year for 2010. Mr. Adelman will join the nation's top small businesses in Washington to compete for the honor of National Small Business Person of the Year during the U.S. Small Business Administration's National Small Business Week celebration, May 23 – 29, 2010. The National Small Business Person of the Year and runners-up will be selected from among the 53 state small business winners, including the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico and Guam.

Since Trade Wings' modest beginnings in Dover, NH in 1996, Mr. Adelman has been passionate about driving business model innovation within the Telecom industry. With more than 20 years experience, Mr. Adelman leads a number of strategic initiatives designed to establish Trade Wings as a trusted authority on the development and implementation of reuse strategies for maximizing the revenue potential of network assets in customers service and supply chains.

Under his leadership, and through his long-term vision, this dynamic organization has expanded its operations around the globe. The company now maintains offices and warehouse facilities in the United States, United Kingdom, Europe and Asia Pacific, and its customer base includes 15 of the top 25 telecom companies. In the last year alone, Trade Wings' annual revenue has increased more than 16% and the company now has approximately 50 employees.

"It's a tremendous honor to be chosen by the SBA as the New Hampshire Small Business Person of the Year," said Mr. Adelman. "As the Telecom industry continues to evolve, demand for our products and services are increasing around the world, and recognition such as this is representative of the hard work and commitment to success Trade Wings' employees believe in so strongly."

"Mr. Adelman and his staff have created a New Hampshire small business success story at Trade Wings," said SBA's New Hampshire District Director Witmer Jones. "They have and are transforming the market for stranded and decommissioned telecom equipment across the globe. You can't help but be impressed with what they've accomplished through hard work, ingenuity and commitment."

Mr. Adelman earned a bachelor's degree in agricultural engineering from the University of Maine, Orono and a master of business administration in entrepreneurship from Suffolk University.

As a longtime resident of Rollinsford, NH, Mr. Adelman also brings his enthusiasm, innovative spirit and energy in his contributions to the local community. Todd is actively involved in supporting numerous organizations such as Share Our Strength and Operation Frontline, and in the past was a member of the Young Presidents' Organization and served on the board of directors of the Children's Museum of New Hampshire and Temple Israel in Dover, New Hampshire.

For more information, visit www.tradewings.com, follow Trade Wings on Twitter @tradewings and YouTube at www.youtube.com/user/TradeWingsInc.