EXPANDING HORIZONS 2010

A Workshop About Investing Overseas for Minority and Women-Owned Businesses

Organized by the Overseas Private Investment Corporation
An Agency of the U.S. Government

Learn how hundreds of women and minority-owned business owners from all over the United States have used OPIC products to gain access to emerging markets overseas. Discover how you can take advantage of all the products OPIC has to offer.

October 14, 2010
Denver, CO

November 18, 2010
Philadelphia, PA

As minority and women-owned small businesses grow by participating in the global marketplace, they face unique challenges.

Lack of knowledge about government programs available to support overseas investment, the scarcity of private sector capital to pursue opportunities abroad, or concern over political risks in emerging markets can prevent minority and women-owned businesses from expanding overseas.

Speakers will include senior government officials from OPIC; the Small Business Administration; the Export-Import Bank of the U.S.; the U.S. Trade and Development Agency; the U.S. Department of Commerce, including the U.S. Commercial Service and the Minority Business Development Agency; and other agencies and representatives from businesses investing overseas who will share their insights and experiences.

Additionally, excellent networking opportunities will be available, and participants will have the opportunity to arrange one-on-one meetings with OPIC and other government officials.

The EXPANDING HORIZONS Workshop will address these concerns by providing participants with an understanding of the programs and resources provided by the Overseas Private Investment Corporation, which is the U.S. government agency responsible for supporting private sector investment in developing countries. This is a unique opportunity to learn about:

- The challenges and opportunities of overseas investment
- U.S. government programs offering assistance to minority and women-owned businesses planning to go global
- Political risk insurance and how it can protect your business
- Accessing capital for your overseas project
- Special opportunities in the renewable energy and clean technology sector
- OPIC's special products for small businesses

ABOUT OPIC:

The Overseas Private Investment Corporation (OPIC) was established as an agency of the U.S. government in 1971. It helps U.S. businesses invest overseas, fosters economic development in new and emerging markets, complements the private sector in managing risks associated with foreign direct investment, and supports U.S. foreign policy.

Because OPIC charges market-based fees for its products, it operates on a self-sustaining basis at no net cost to taxpayers.

OPIC's political risk insurance and financing help U.S. businesses of all sizes invest in more than 150 emerging markets and developing nations worldwide. Over the agency's 39-year history, OPIC has supported $194 billion worth of investments that have helped developing countries to generate over 842,000 host-country jobs.

OPIC projects have also generated $74 billion in U.S. exports and supported more than 274,000 American jobs.
