Rhode Island Salute to Small Business Award Nominations

Honoring Outstanding Entrepreneurs and Small Business Owners

Every year since 1963, the President of the United States proclaims that a week be set aside to recognize the critical contributions of America's entrepreneurs and small business owners. More than half of the American population either own or work for a small business, and they create about two out of every three new jobs in the U.S. each year.

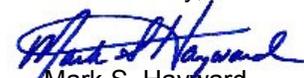

The U.S. Small Business Administration highlights the impact of outstanding entrepreneurs, small business owners and others from Rhode Island. Every day they are working to grow small businesses, create 21st century jobs, drive innovation and increase America's global competitiveness.

You may qualify for one of these awards or know someone who should be recognized for their accomplishments as entrepreneurs or for their contributions to the Rhode Island small business community.

The Rhode Island Small Business Person of the Year will be honored with others from the 50 states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands, and national winners of the champion and special award categories in Washington, D.C. in May, 2011. The Rhode Island Salute to Small Business celebration is traditionally held in June.

The nomination deadline is Friday, November 12, 2010. You may fax nominations to (401) 528-4539, email - joan.moran@sba.gov or mail them to the Rhode Island district office. If you have any questions please call (401) 528-4561.

Sincerely,

Mark S. Hayward
District Director
