SBA Disaster Loan Deadline is August 4; Small Business Owners Still Have Time to Apply

ATLANTA - The U.S. Small Business Administration is reminding businesses that August 4 is the filing deadline for federal economic injury disaster loans that are available to small businesses located in the counties of Clinton, Essex and Franklin in the State of New York as a result of high winds and hail on August 16, 2007.

Under this declaration, SBA's Economic Injury Disaster Loan (EIDL) program is available to farm-related and nonfarm-related small business concerns and small agricultural cooperatives that suffered financial losses as a direct result of this disaster. Farmers and ranchers are not eligible to apply to SBA.

Eligible small businesses may qualify for loans up to $1.5 million. These loans are available at a 4 percent interest rate with loan terms up to 30 years. SBA determines eligibility for the program based on the size and type of business and its financial resources. Loan amounts and terms are set by SBA and are based upon each applicant's financial condition. Under this disaster declaration, SBA cannot provide loans to agricultural producers.
