Deadline To Apply For SBA Economic Injury Disaster Loans Is November 10

ATLANTA – The U.S. Small Business Administration is reminding businesses in Mississippi that Economic Injury Disaster Loans are still available to small businesses economically impacted by severe storms and tornadoes that occurred on February 5, 2008. The deadline to file an application is November 10, 2008.

The declaration covers the counties of Alcorn, Calhoun, Lafayette, Marshall, Panola, Pontotoc, Prentiss, Tate, Tippah, Tishomingo, Union and Yalobusha in the State of Mississippi and Hardeman, Hardin and McNairy in the State of Tennessee.

“Businesses that suffered economic losses as a result of the disaster and want to apply for low-interest loans from SBA are urged to do so before the November 10 deadline,” said Frank Skaggs, Director of SBA Field Operations Center East.

Loans are available up to $1.5 million for small businesses that suffered substantial economic injury from the disaster. These working capital loans may be used to pay fixed debts, payroll, accounts payable and other bills that could have been paid had the disaster not occurred. The loans are not intended to replace lost sales or profits.

The interest rate on these loans is 4 percent, with a maximum term of 30 years. The SBA determines the amount of economic injury and the terms of each loan based on the financial circumstances of each borrower. The SBA determines eligibility for the program based on the size and type of business and its financial resources. Loan amounts and terms are set by the SBA and are based on each applicant’s financial condition.
