SBA DISASTER LOAN DEADLINE IS DECEMBER 8 SMALL BUSINESS OWNERS STILL HAVE TIME TO APPLY

ATLANTA - The U.S. Small Business Administration is reminding businesses that December 8 is the filing deadline for federal economic injury disaster loans that are available to small businesses located in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts as a result of the drought and extreme heat that occurred July 15, 2007 through December 31, 2007.

Small businesses in the following counties are eligible to apply: Barnstable, Bristol, Middlesex, Norfolk, Plymouth Suffolk and Worcester in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

“When the Secretary of Agriculture issues a disaster declaration to help farmers recover from damages and losses to crops, the Small Business Administration issues a declaration to assist small businesses affected by the same disaster,” said Frank Skaggs, Director of SBA Field Operations Center East.

Under this declaration, SBA’s Economic Injury Disaster Loan program is available to farm-related and nonfarm-related small business concerns and small agricultural cooperatives that suffered financial losses as a direct result of this disaster. Farmers and ranchers are not eligible to apply to SBA but nurseries are eligible to apply for economic injury disaster loans for losses caused by drought conditions.

Eligible small businesses may qualify for loans up to $1.5 million. These loans are available at a 4 percent interest rate with loan terms up to 30 years. SBA determines eligibility for the program based on the size and type of business and its financial resources. Loan amounts and terms are set by the SBA and are based upon each applicant’s financial condition. Under this disaster declaration, the SBA cannot provide loans to agricultural producers.
