SBA DISASTER LOAN DEADLINE IS JUNE 15; THERE IS STILL TIME TO APPLY

ATLANTA - The U.S. Small Business Administration is reminding disaster victims that June 15 is the filing deadline for federal economic injury disaster loans available in declared counties of the Commonwealth of Virginia. The SBA declared a disaster because of damages and losses to crops caused by drought and excessive heat that began on January 1, 2008.

The SBA's disaster declaration includes the following counties: Albemarle, Amelia, Amherst, Appomattox, Augusta, Bedford, Botetourt, Brunswick, Buckingham, Campbell, Charlotte, Chesterfield, Cumberland, Dinwiddie, Fluvanna, Franklin, Goochland, Greenville, Halifax, Hanover, Henry, Louisa, Lunenburg, Mecklenburg, Nelson, Nottoway, Orange, Pittsylvania, Powhatan, Prince Edward, Prince George, Roanoke, Rockbridge, Spotsylvania and Sussex; and the Independent Cities of Bedford, Danville, Lynchburg, Petersburg and South Boston in Virginia.

"When the Secretary of Agriculture issues a disaster declaration to help farmers recover from damages and losses to crops, the Small Business Administration issues a declaration to assist small businesses and most private, non-profit organizations affected by the same disaster," said Frank Skaggs, Director of SBA Field Operations Center East.

Under this declaration, the SBA's Economic Injury Disaster Loan program is available to farm-related and nonfarm-related small business concerns, small agricultural cooperatives and most private, non-profit organizations of all sizes that suffered financial losses as a direct result of this disaster. Farmers and ranchers are not eligible to apply to SBA, but nurseries are eligible to apply for economic injury disaster loans for losses caused by drought conditions.

Eligible small businesses and non-profit organizations may qualify for loans up to $2 million. These loans are available at a 4 percent interest rate with loan terms up to 30 years. The SBA determines eligibility based on the size of the applicant, type of activity and its financial resources. Loan amounts and terms are set by the SBA and are based on each applicant's financial condition. Under this disaster declaration, the SBA cannot provide loans to agricultural producers.

Disaster victims should contact the SBA's Customer Service Center by calling 1-800-659-2955 (1-800-877-8339 for the hearing-impaired) Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 9 p.m. EDT, (Closed in observance of Memorial Day) or by sending and email to disastercustomerservice@sba.gov.
