SBA DISASTER LOANS STILL AVAILABLE FOR SMALL BUSINESSES IN INDIANA; DEADLINE AUGUST 31

ATLANTA - The U.S. Small Business Administration is reminding small businesses that August 31 is the filing deadline for federal economic injury disaster loans available in declared counties of the State of Indiana. The SBA declared a disaster as a result of a drought that began on January 1, 2008 and continuing.

The SBA's disaster declaration includes the following counties: Adams, Allen, Blackford, Clark, Crawford, DeKalb, Delaware, Dubois, Elkhart, Floyd, Fulton, Grant, Harrison, Huntington, Jackson, Jay, Kosciusko, LaGrange, Lawrence, Miami, Noble, Orange, Perry, Randolph, Scott, Spencer, Steuben, Wabash, Warrick, Washington, Wells and Whitley.

"When the Secretary of Agriculture issues a disaster declaration to help farmers recover from damages and losses to crops, the Small Business Administration issues a declaration to assist small businesses, small agricultural cooperatives and most private, non-profit organizations of all sizes affected by the same disaster," said Frank Skaggs, Director of SBA Field Operations Center East.

Under this declaration, the SBA's Economic Injury Disaster Loan program is available to farm-related and nonfarm-related small business concerns, small agricultural cooperatives and most private, non-profit organizations of all sizes that suffered financial losses as a direct result of this disaster. Farmers and ranchers are not eligible to apply to SBA, but nurseries are eligible to apply for economic injury disaster loans for losses caused by drought conditions.

Eligible small businesses and non-profit organizations may qualify for loans up to $2 million. These loans are available at a 4 percent interest rate with loan terms up to 30 years. The SBA determines eligibility based on the size of the applicant, type of activity and its financial resources. Loan amounts and terms are set by the SBA and are based on each applicant's financial condition. Under this disaster declaration, the SBA cannot provide loans to agricultural producers.

Interested small businesses can contact the SBA's Customer Service Center by calling 1-800-659-2955 (1-800-877-8339 for the hearing-impaired) Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m., EDT, or by sending an email to disastercustomerservice@sba.gov. Loan applications can be downloaded from the SBA's Web site at www.sba.gov/services/disasterassistance. Completed applications should be mailed to: U.S. Small Business Administration, Processing and Disbursement Center, 14925 Kingsport Road, Fort Worth, TX 76155.

Small businesses may visit SBA's secure Web site at <https://disasterloan.sba.gov/ela/> to apply for disaster loans.

Completed loan applications must be returned to SBA no later than August 31, 2009.
