SBA DISASTER LOAN DEADLINE IS MARCH 22; THERE IS STILL TIME TO APPLY

ATLANTA - The U.S. Small Business Administration is reminding small businesses that March 22 is the filing deadline for federal economic injury disaster loans available in the declared counties of Alachua, Citrus, Hardee, Highlands, Hillsborough, Lake, Levy, Manatee, Marion, Okeechobee, Orange, Osceola, Pasco, Polk, Putnam, Sumter and Volusia in Florida. The SBA declared a disaster as a result of the drought that occurred from March 15, 2009 through May 26, 2009.

“When the Secretary of Agriculture issues a disaster declaration to help farmers recover from damages and losses to crops, the Small Business Administration issues a declaration to eligible entities affected by the same disaster,” said Frank Skaggs, director of SBA’s Field Operations Center East.

Under this declaration, the SBA’s Economic Injury Disaster Loan program is available to eligible farm-related and nonfarm-related entities that suffered financial losses as a direct result of this disaster. Agricultural producers, farmers and ranchers are not eligible to apply to SBA, but nurseries are eligible to apply for economic injury disaster loans for losses caused by drought conditions.

The loan amount can be up to $2 million with a 4 percent interest rate and terms up to 30 years. The SBA determines eligibility based on the size of the entity, type of activity and its financial resources. Loan amounts and terms are set by the SBA and are based on each applicant’s financial condition. These working capital loans may be used to pay fixed debts, payroll, accounts payable, and other bills that could have been paid had the disaster not occurred. The loans are not intended to replace lost sales or profits.

Disaster loan information and application forms may be obtained by calling the SBA’s Customer Service Center at 800-659-2955 (800-877-8339 for the hearing-impaired) Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. EST or by sending an e-mail to disastercustomerservice@sba.gov. Completed loan applications must be returned to SBA no later than March 22, 2010.
