Disaster Assistance Available for Small Businesses

Sacramento, CA - Small, non-farm businesses in 18 Wyoming counties (plus neighboring counties in Nebraska and South Dakota) may now apply for low-interest disaster loans from the U. S. Small Business Administration (SBA). These loans offset economic losses because of reduced revenues caused by drought and high temperatures in the primary Wyoming counties listed below beginning January 1, 2006 and continuing, announced Alfred E. Judd, Director of SBA's Disaster Field Operations Center - West.

Small businesses in the following primary and neighboring counties may apply:

Primary Wyoming Counties: Fremont, Niobrara, Washakie and Weston

Neighboring Wyoming Counties:

Big Horn	Campbell	Carbon	Converse	Crook	Goshen
Hot Springs	Johnson	Natrona	Park	Platte	Sublette
Sweetwater	Teton

Neighboring Nebraska County: Sioux;

Neighboring South Dakota Counties: Custer, Fall River, Lawrence and Pennington.

Small businesses may qualify for Economic Injury Disaster Loans (EIDLs) of up to $1.5 million to help meet financial obligations and operating expenses which could have been met had the disaster not occurred. "Eligibility for these loans is based on the financial impact of the disaster only and not on any actual property damage. These loans have an interest rate of 4%, a maximum term of 30 years, and are restricted to small businesses without the financial ability to offset the adverse impact without hardship," Judd said.

By law, SBA makes EIDLs available when the U. S. Secretary of Agriculture designates an agricultural disaster. Secretary Mike Johanns declared these disasters at the request of Governor Dave Freudenthal.

Businesses primarily engaged in farming or ranching are not eligible for SBA disaster assistance. Agricultural enterprises should contact the Farm Services Agency (FSA) about the U. S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) assistance made available by the Secretary's declaration. However, in drought disasters nurseries are eligible for SBA disaster assistance.

The deadline to apply for these loans is July 16, 2007.
