SBA Offers Disaster Assistance to Texas Residents and Businesses Affected by the Severe Weather in Hidalgo and Concho Counties

SACRAMENTO – Jovita Carranza, Deputy Administrator of the U. S. Small Business Administration (SBA), announced that low-interest disaster loans are now available to residents and businesses affected by the high winds, tornado, hail and rain that occurred May 14 through 16 in Concho and Hidalgo Counties.

By declaring a disaster, Deputy Administrator Carranza’s action makes SBA assistance available. Carranza’s action responded to a request from Governor Rick Perry that SBA received on May 30. The declaration covers the Texas counties of Brooks, Cameron, Coleman, Concho, Hidalgo, Kenedy, McCulloch, Menard, Runnels, Schleicher, Starr, Tom Green, and Willacy.

“We look forward to working with Texas and the people affected by this disaster to make SBA disaster loans available to homeowners, renters and businesses,” said Deputy Administrator Carranza.

“Low-interest Federal disaster loans are available to homeowners, renters, businesses of all sizes and private, non-profit organizations whose property was damaged or destroyed by the tornado, high winds, hail and rain,” said Joseph Montes, SBA’s Region VI Administrator.

“SBA customer service representatives will be on hand at the following Disaster Loan Outreach Centers beginning, 8 am, Tuesday, June 10 on the days and times indicated to issue loan applications, answer questions about SBA’s disaster loan program, explain the application process and help each individual complete their application,” Montes continued.
