The estimated burden for completing this form is 18 hours per response for each individual respondent required to complete Exhibits D through G and 2 hours per response for the remaining exhibits to be completed on behalf of the proposed SBIC entity. You are not required to respond to any collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB approval number. Comments on the burden should be sent to the US Small Business Administration, Chief, Administrative Information Branch, Washington, DC 20416 and Desk Officer for the Small Business Administration, Office of Management and Budget, New Executive Office Building, Room 10202, Washington, DC 20503. OMB Approval 3245-0062. PLEASE DO NOT SEND FORMS TO OMB.

PRIOR TO SIGNING OR SUBMITTING ANY OF THE EXHIBITS INCLUDED IN THIS FORM, PLEASE SEE "NOTICES REQUIRED BY LAW" ON PAGE 2 FOR EXPLANATIONS ABOUT DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION AND THE USES OF SUCH INFORMATION.

NOTICES REQUIRED BY LAW

The following is a brief summary of the laws applicable to this solicitation of information.

PAPERWORK REDUCTION ACT (44 U.S.C. Chapter 35)

In Exhibits to the Small Business Investment Company Management Assessment Questionnaire and License Application (“Exhibits”) where there is an advisory of “Notices Required by Law”, SBA will use the information that has been provided in connection with an investigation of your experience and character. The scope of this investigation may include contact with banks, other financial institutions, individuals, business associates, law enforcement offices (including but not limited to SBA's Office of Inspector General and the Federal Bureau of Investigation), and any others that will assist SBA in making an adequate appraisal of your general business reputation and character.

PRIVACY ACT (5 U.S.C. 522a)

Any person can request to see or get copies of any personal information that SBA has when those records are retrievable by individual identifiers, such as name or social security number. See 13 C.F.R. Part 102, Subpart B. However, requests for information about another party may be denied unless SBA has the written permission of the individual to release the information to the requestor or unless the information is subject to disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. 552).

Generally, under the provisions of the Privacy Act, you are not required to provide your social security number and the failure to provide your social security number may not affect any right, benefit or privilege to which you are entitled. However, the Debt Collection Improvement Act of 1996 (31 U.S.C. 7701(c)(1)) permits a Federal agency to require each person doing business with that agency to furnish to that agency that person's taxpayer identification number (TIN). Therefore, it is mandatory that you furnish your TIN pursuant to the Debt Collection Improvement Act of 1996. Additionally, disclosure of your name and other personal information requested is mandatory. SBA is required under Section 301(c)(3) of the Small Business Investment Act, 15 U.S.C. 681(c)(3), to consider the general business reputation of certain key individuals in order to make a determination about whether each individual has the business experience and character necessary to participate in the SBIC program. Your social security number and other personal identifiers assist SBA in making these determinations required by law. If you do not provide this information, SBA will be unable to reach a favorable determination concerning your participation in the SBIC program.

The Privacy Act authorizes SBA to make certain “routine uses” of information protected by that Act. One such routine use is that when this information indicates a violation or potential violation of law, whether civil, criminal, or administrative in nature, SBA may refer it to the appropriate agency, whether Federal, State, local or foreign, charged with responsibility for or otherwise involved in investigation, prosecution, enforcement or prevention of such violations. Another routine use of personal information is to assist in obtaining credit bureau reports, including consumer credit reports and scores on the principals of the SBIC applicant, for the purpose of determining whether to approve a principal's participation in the SBIC program. See 74 FR 14890 (and as amended from time to time) for additional background and other routine uses.

Any person concerned with the collection of information, its mandatory or voluntary nature, disclosure or routine use under the Privacy Act, or requesting information under the Freedom of Information Act may contact the Chief, Freedom of Information/Privacy Acts Division, Small Business Administration, Washington, D.C. 20416.

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT (5 U.S.C. 552)

This law provides, with some exceptions, that we must make records or portions of records contained in our files available to persons requesting them. This generally includes aggregate statistical information on the SBIC program and other information such as names of licensed SBICs and names of companies that have been financed by SBICs. We do not routinely make available to third parties your proprietary data or information that would cause competitive harm or would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.

To request information under this Act, you must send the request to the SBA office maintaining the records requested or the Chief, FOI/PA Office, 409 3rd Street, SW, Washington, DC 20416, or by e-mail to foia@sba.gov, and identify it as a Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request. The request must describe the specific records you want.

EXHIBIT E
BUSINESS EXPERIENCE & EDUCATION OF PRINCIPALS

PRIOR TO SUBMITTING THIS DOCUMENT, PLEASE SEE THE "NOTICES REQUIRED BY LAW" ON PAGE 2 OF THIS FORM FOR EXPLANATIONS ABOUT DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION AND USES OF SUCH INFORMATION.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. For each individual, include a resume (not just a narrative) of relevant experience and education, with dates and addresses shown. (The resume belongs in this exhibit and in no other place.) A length of two pages is preferable, but do not exceed three pages in type no smaller than 11 pt. Arial or 12 pt. Times Roman.

- ◆ Relate your business and professional experience during the past twenty years, as well as any prior experience that relates to your qualifications to manage an SBIC. Give the title of each position, and describe the basic functions and responsibilities.
- ◆ Regarding education, list your degrees, major areas of study, and names and addresses of the institutions attended.
- ◆ If desired, you may also include any other information that would be considered relevant to demonstrating qualifications for being a principal of an SBIC.

2. References:

If available, provide five references in each of categories (A) through (E). Be sure to identify in which category a reference is being placed, and do not provide more than one name from any single firm. Also, do not provide a reference from someone who is a principal, employee, or member of any committee of the applicant.

- (A) Supervisors or partners
- (B) Associates (peers)
- (C) Portfolio company presidents or chairpersons
- (D) Portfolio company co-investors
- (E) Fund investors (if relevant to prior experience)

For each reference, give the following information.

- Name, plus title and company, if relevant
- State the dates (years) of the active relationship
- Very briefly state the context of the relationship
- Provide the address, plus the phone numbers, and indicate (W) work, (H) home, or (C) cellular.

Please use a two-column table format. Column one should contain the name and contact information, and column two should provide the time period(s) and describe the nature of the relationship.

EXHIBIT K ORGANIZATIONAL CHART

INSTRUCTIONS

1. On the next page, provide an organizational chart of all entities related to the SBIC. Please refer to Question 403 of the SBIC Management Assessment Questionnaire and License Application, Form 2181 for related information to provide.
 2. Two charts are provided as starting points: one for a stand-alone SBIC, and the other for a “drop-down” SBIC (a subsidiary of another investment company).
 3. You can use either one of the templates provided or your own chart, as long as you show the nature of the relationships and include the types of information indicated. If you use the enclosed charts, please remove the descriptive words and enter the appropriate data.
 4. It is not necessary to draw the charts in Word, but if you wish to do so, here are some hints.
 - Click on the menu item Tools, Options, and on the tab labeled Toolbars, click on Drawing. This will give you a drawing toolbar at the bottom of your screen.
 - On the toolbar, click on either the oval shape or the square shape to draw a box. (It is not necessary to utilize the conventions for shapes shown on the chart.) After you have drawn a box, move the cursor over the box, right click for a menu, and click Add Text.
 - Use Arial typestyle, 9 pt. and center the text.
 - Click on the arrow shape to add arrows.
 - To move an object, the object can either be selected or not, but move the cursor until it turns into a cross with four arrows; hold down the left mouse key and move the object.
 5. When completed, delete these instructions.

If not applicable, insert "X" →
---------------------------------	--

(If the box above is checked, skip the remainder of this Exhibit.)

INSTRUCTIONS

See 13 CFR 107.115 and discuss all of the following issues. The discussion must be as complete as possible, both from a business and from a legal standpoint.

V1. Describe your plans for an initial public offering. If the SBIC or parent fund is already public, give a brief history of its formation and operation as a public company.

V2. Explain your anticipated resolution of the differences between the valuation requirements of the SEC (or state regulators) for publicly traded investment companies and the valuation policy for the SBIC program, as given on the SBA Investment Division web site.

V3. Explain fully any anticipated transfers of funds between the SBIC and other entities.

V4. As relevant, explain co-investment strategies between entities.

V5. Distribution policies.

V5.1 Are you planning to elect to be taxed as a regulated investment company pursuant to section 851 of the Internal Revenue Code.

V5.2 Discuss fully your proposed distribution policies.

V5.3 If you plan to utilize debenture leverage, discuss fully the integration of various SEC and tax laws, as well as state securities laws, regarding distributions from investment companies with SBA regulations governing distributions and returns of capital. (See 13 CFR 107.585.)

² The term "Public SBIC" also includes subsidiaries of public investment companies.
