Your Small Business Resource

Every day, the U.S. Small Business Administration and its nationwide network of partners help millions of potential and current small business owners start, grow and succeed.

Resources and programs targeting small businesses provide an advantage necessary to help small businesses effectively compete in the marketplace and strengthen the overall U.S. economy.

SBA offers help in the following areas:

- Starting a Business
- Financing a Business
- Growing a Business
- Opportunities in Contracting
- Recovering From Disaster
- A Voice for Small Business in Government

Visit SBA online at www.sba.gov for 24/7 access to small business news, information and training for entrepreneurs.

All SBA programs and services are provided on a nondiscriminatory basis.

Lender Relations Specialist Annie Hudspeth of the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) and guest speakers, in collaboration with the Coastal Bend College, Beeville, Texas will hold several informative and educational business seminars free-of-charge.

Stop by and learn how to access capital to start or grow your small business through the many SBA's loan guaranty programs available tailored to your business needs. Meet resource experts that can help you start, finance and manage a successful small business. Additionally, we will walk you through a host of important topics presented by SBA's alliance partners to learn key business practices.
