Wyoming - Have you checked out the Wyoming Small Business Administration's website, www.sba.gov/wy, lately? You will find it full of resource information to help you start, grow and succeed in your small business or your business dream. Under Local Resources, you will find links to Wyoming chambers, legal information, Wyoming schools and many Wyoming government sites. By selecting Services you can view information regarding free Online Training such as Starting a Business, Financing and Accounting. If you need counseling and assistance you will find links to our resource partners, under Counseling and Training that can help you. If you are just starting or expanding your business you will find 20 frequently asked questions addressed by visiting Resources.

In addition to the many choices above, you can view a copy of our monthly Lender Alert Newsletter, or you can read about our Success Stories from all over Wyoming, just click on News.

SBA's website, www.sba.gov/wy, is well worth your time if you are interested in anything about starting a Wyoming small business.
